

“IT’S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS.....GIFTS”

NMGS Artist Series Workshop

Sunday, August 17, 2008

9:00 AM – 4:30 PM

At the Albuquerque Garden Center
10120 Lomas Blvd. NE

$50 Plus a Materials Fee of $40.00 For All Projects
(For NMGS Members only $40 plus materials fee)

Using egg gourds, some of the new line of gourd stains, pyrography and other techniques, Dar Stone will teach you how to create her intricate and whimsical southwest-themed ornaments that are sure to please. An added bonus are the woodburning skills you will learn in this workshop can be used on any gourd.

Joy Zuehls uses buffalo gourds and a variety of embellishments to make her unusual Christmas ornaments. You will learn to make these beautiful decorations for personalized and inexpensive gifts. All the techniques in this workshop can also be used to make a stunning and unique wreath that says “welcome” to friends and family to your home or for a one-of-a-kind special gift. Download your workshop registration form from the link below.

Class size is limited, so register early! If you have any questions, please email Dar Stone at darstone@comcast.net or call her at (505) 250-9660.
